

How to write your own strategies for embedding

Writing

Instructions

1. Choose one or two items from the box and then add your own context below.
2. Write out a final draft summarising your strategy.
3. If you need to, make any changes to ensure your strategy addresses the writing skills you want to concentrate on.

Teach my learners to write to communicate with a focus on...

how to use purpose and audience strategies, how to use spelling strategies, everyday vocabulary, academic vocabulary, technical vocabulary, how to use language and text features, how to use planning and composing tools and strategies, how to use revising and editing tools and strategies	and
in the context of...

Here's my idea for a strategy for embedding writing

Thinking more deeply about your strategy

Can you provide a breakdown of the specific writing skill areas?

One area I want to focus on is ...

This includes things like ...

Another area I intend to include is ...

This covers ...

What kinds of specific writing competencies or practices do you expect to see?

What I hope to see is ...

Also, I'd like to see more of ...