

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Candidate details

Full name
Job role
Organisation
Email
Mobile phone
Date

Section 1: Whakahoahoa - Design and Planning

Your question

Write your reflective question for this section in the box. It should end with “when you designed and planned learning?” For example:

- How have you encouraged meaningful and positive relationships when you designed and planned learning and/or support?

Write your question here

Scenario 1.1

Briefly describe a situation where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. Write approximately 100 words.

One situation where I... was ...

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Reflect on why it worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

I learned that...

Scenario 1.2

Briefly describe a second scenario where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. You should write approximately 100 words.

Another scenario where I... was...

Reflect on why this worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

Afterwards, I changed...

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Section 2: Tautoko - Facilitation and support

My Question

Write your reflective question for this section in the box. It should end with “when you facilitated foundation learning and/or support?” For example:

- How have you maintained wairua or spirituality/wellbeing when you facilitated learning and/or support?

Write your question here

Scenario 2.1

Briefly describe a situation where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. Write approximately 100 words.

One situation where I... was ...

Reflect on why it worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

I learned that...

Scenario 2.2

Briefly describe a second scenario where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. You should write approximately 100 words.

Another scenario where I... was...

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Reflect on why this worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

Afterwards, I changed...

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Section 3: Whakautuutu - Assess and give Feedback

My Question

Write your reflective question for this section in the box. It should end with “when you assessed and gave feedback?” For example:

- How have you protected mana or self-esteem when you assessed and gave feedback?

Write your question here

Scenario 3.1

Briefly describe a situation where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. Write approximately 100 words.

One situation where I... was ...

Reflect on why it worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

I learned that...

Scenario 3.2

Briefly describe a second scenario where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. You should write approximately 100 words.

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Another scenario where I... was...

Reflect on why this worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

Afterwards, I changed...

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Part 4: Tūhonohono - Engage

My Question

Write your reflective question for this section in the box. It should end with “when you engaged with whanau, hapu and/or communities?” For example:

- How have you protected mana or self-esteem when you engaged with whanau, hapu and/or communities?

Write your question here

Scenario 4.1

Briefly describe a situation where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. Write approximately 100 words.

One situation where I... was ...

Reflect on why it worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

I learned that...

Scenario 4.2

Briefly describe a second scenario where you did this with your learners. Use the prompts or type over them. You should write approximately 100 words.

Another scenario where I... was...

Tapatoru - Reflective Commentary

Reflect on why this worked. Summarise what you learned or what changes you made to your practice. 150 words.

This worked well because...

Afterwards, I changed...